Dear Superintendent Bagano:

Greetings of peace and excellence.

The Graduate School of Education of De La Salle Araneta University, in partnership with the Biological Teachers Association (BIOTA) – National Capital Region (NCR), respectfully invites you and your division to participate in the Research Colloquium on July 4, 2026, from 7:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M. at De La Salle Araneta University, Malabon City.

This academic gathering aims to provide a venue for educators, researchers, graduate students, and education leaders to present research findings, exchange scholarly insights, and promote evidence-based practices that contribute to the advancement of quality education in the Philippines. We would be honored if your division could send twenty (20) teacher-participants to attend the colloquium. Registration is free of charge. In addition, we would be grateful if your division could consider endorsing one (1) research presenter who may wish to share a completed or ongoing study that highlights innovative practices, research initiatives, or educational developments within your division. This is encouraged but not required.

Your presence and support would greatly enrich the discussions and inspire participants as we continue to cultivate a culture of research, innovation, and service in the Lasallian tradition of excellence and social responsibility. Thank you very much for your continued dedication to advancing quality education and fostering a culture of excellence in the Philippine educational system.

We would appreciate receiving your confirmation on or before June 1, 2026.

For inquiries, please contact: Ms. Ma. Clarissa Soriano- Secretary, DLSAU Graduate School
