SUBJECT : INVITATION TO ATTEND AND PARTICIPATE IN THE PHILIPPINE BOOK FESTIVAL (PBF) 2026

DATE : 3 March 2026

The National Book Development Board (NBDB), an attached agency of the Department of Education (DepEd), will hold the 4th Philippine Book Festival, the largest market for Filipino books and a prime venue for learning and educational entertainment, from 12-15 March 2026, at the Megatrade Hall, SM Megamall, Ortigas Center, Mandaluyong City.

Celebrating literature, culture, and creativity, this year's PBF will follow a Filipino festival theme where books become bridges to culture and the beauty of Philippine traditions and heritage are celebrated through stories and art.

The four-day event, which is FREE OF CHARGE, will feature the following five realms offering a variety of quality books for attendees to relish and benefit from:

1. Aral Aklat – dedicated to academic books;
2. Booktopia – showcasing fiction and non-fiction trade books;
3. Kid Lit – focused on children's books;
4. Komiks – highlighting comics and graphic novels; and
5. Collective Stand – inspiring stories of indie creatives.

Participants shall be immersed in a meaningful literary fiesta experience through the following:

- Meet and Greet with Authors, Creators, and Celebrities - Connect with your favorite Filipino authors and creators and get to know them more while having your books signed;
- Workshops and Storytelling Sessions - Take pleasure in modern and traditional storytelling, poetry readings, and other performances to be displayed;
- Fun and Exciting Competitions - Showcase your talents and creativity in the thrilling contests offered;
- Exhibits - Attendees can look forward to the different interactive and exciting booths;
- Food and Festivities - Take a feast and indulge in Filipino classics and other delicacies in the food zone;

These programs and activities shall take place in the main stage, cinema, creators stage, Pakyawan area, and all booths. To learn more about the complete list of programs and other details of the PBF, you may visit the following official social media platforms of the NBDB and PBF:

supplementary learning resources (SLRs) for school libraries, to attend the book fair activities during their free time;

3. Allowing public and private schools to hold educational tours during the PBF, subject to compliance with the rules and regulations in the conduct of educational trips; and
4. Encouraging selected Regional, SDO, and / or school non-teaching and teaching scoping personnel (only during periods / days the latter have no class) to attend the PBF on official business, subject to provision of applicable overload/Compensatory Time-Off (CTO) during non-working days when necessary.

In relation to item no. 4 above and in case the RO, SDO, and/or school decide to organize their respective delegation to attend the PBF 2026, expenses incurred relative to the participation of the identified DepEd personnel may be charged against available local funds, subject to the usual government accounting and auditing rules and regulations.

For questions and concerns regarding PBF 2026, please contact Dir. Maria Carolina A. Tapia of NBDB through email at mctapia@books.gov.ph.
